Students' rights are basic to the freedom to learn and must be based on mutual respect and responsibility. In addition, when a student participates in classes offered by Project ELEVATE at Rockland Community College, he/she agrees to abide by all College regulations. Therefore, violations of any rule of the following Code of Conduct will result in appropriate disciplinary action.

In order to maintain an optimal learning environment and to foster a campus community that values civility, integrity, respect and safety, the College sets forth the following behavioral expectations of all students:

STANDARD 1. RCC students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty and integrity and support a campus environment that is conducive to learning and scholarship.

STANDARD 2. RCC students are expected to respect and preserve the health, safety, welfare, privacy and rights of all members of the campus community.

STANDARD 3. RCC students are expected to respect the property of others, and the property, facilities, resources and reputation of the College.

STANDARD 4. RCC students are expected to observe the rules, regulations, policies and procedures of the College as well as local, state, and federal laws.

I acknowledge that I have read and understand the Code of Conduct. I understand that the individual attending Project ELEVATE must abide by the RCC's Code of Conduct as described on the above website.
